Lesson 1 - A World Of Experience

Week 2 - Your Purpose

Purpose in life is important. What are you really doing here? Have you ever felt you are wasting time? The real you does not want to waste time. The real you is purposeful in all you do. When you begin ignoring or become decoyed from what you have come to do, you will feel pressure and lack. These are your alarms.

You have help fulfilling your life purpose, you are not alone. Your Spiritual Helpers are souls who have mastered all the things you have come to accomplish for yourself. They are called many things; Masters, Guardian Angels, Controls, Spirit, Archetypes, Guidance to name a few. These Helpers are here to share their wisdom with you. They are not here to work for you, or to become powerful over people. They have outgrown planet earth, which makes it difficult to manipulate them in any glory trips. They will always help, but they are here to back you in your purpose. Are you willing to ask for help? The more you commit to fulfilling your real purpose in life, the more they can respond to that commitment.

You must discover for yourself why you came to planet earth. No one can do this for you. Your Helpers cannot offer guidance if you play games with yourself, or keep yourself confused. Your reasons for being here will establish for you your life's purpose, at this moment here on planet earth. You will then understand the job that you have come here to do and can organize yourself to effectively accomplish your lifetime goals. Nothing will hinder you because you will be on-track and in your timing.
